INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Name of the Society: ADVENTIST DEVELOPMENT AND RELIEF AGENCY

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of ADVENTIST DEVELOPMENT AND RELIEF AGENCY which comprise the balance sheet as at March 31, 2020, and the Income and Expenditure account for the year ended, and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements of entity are prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with The Societies Registration Act, 1860 Laws.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing (SAs). Our responsibilities under those Standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements, and we have fulfilled our other responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter Paragraph:

Due to current pandemic situation in the country leading to lockdown and restrictions on travel and other restrictions we have opted for remote working by utilizing various technology tools available. Accordingly, for the purpose of verification we have relied on and reviewed digitized / scanned copies of the documents, vouchers and the papers produced for our verification and review.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with The Societies Registration Act, 1860 Law and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. Those charged with governance for overseeing the entity's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

We further report that:

- a) We have obtained all the information and explanations which, to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of our audit.
- b) In our opinion proper books of accounts as required by the law have been kept by the Society so far as appears from our examination of those books.
- c) In our opinion, the Balance Sheet and the Income and Expenditure Account dealt with by this report comply with the Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India to the extent they are applicable to societies registered under The Societies Registration Act, 1860.

- d) In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts give the information required by the Societies Registration Act, 1860 in the manner so required read together with other notes thereon subject to annexure to audit report attached give true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India.
